

Queenslander Pictorial

PEACE

"Observer" Office, 3.30 p.m.

EXTRA SPECIAL

BRITAIN STRIKES.

WAR DECLARED AGAINST GERMANY.

BRITAIN HAS DECLARED WAR AGAINST GERMANY.

BRITAIN HAS DECLARED WAR AGAINST GERMANY.

BRITAIN HAS DECLARED WAR AGAINST GERMANY.

BRITAIN HAS DECLARED WAR AGAINST GERMANY.

THE THRILLER AT WOMAN UNIVERSITY, WARREN, WHEN BRITAIN WAS DECLARED WAR AGAINST GERMANY. APPROXIMATELY 10,000.

HOW THE WAR BEGAN AND ENDED.

The first indication that a war was about to break out between Germany and England was given in the form of a note from the German Government to the British Government on August 1, 1914, in which a demand was made for the evacuation of the Belgian coast by the British fleet. This demand was refused, and the war began.

WOMAN UNIVERSITY, WARREN, AT THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE WAR.

THE THRILLER AT WOMAN UNIVERSITY, WARREN, WHEN BRITAIN WAS DECLARED WAR AGAINST GERMANY. APPROXIMATELY 10,000.

"Observer" Office, 4.45 p.m.

COMMONWEALTH OFFER ACCEPTED.

20,000 AUSTRALIANS,
SPENDED INDIAN OFFER.

ITALY STANDS FAST.

AN INCIDENT IN MORETON BAY.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

MILITARY OFFER.

QUEENSLAND LANDMARKS IN THE WAR.

The first to the colors ceremony, conducted at ERMINGHAM.

Bandstand at the new campsite.

A 100-impersonation parade.

Marching in the street.

Decorated ranks of Imperial men.

A good example of the new uniform—infantry and light horse.

Foreign Camp on the Sunday before the last sailing—unhatched.

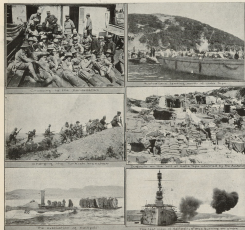

Expeditionary Force men marching through Brisbane.

The Queensland War Band (left) and the Queensland War Band (right).

The farewell.

The desert landscape

The landscape of the desert

The landscape of the desert

The desert landscape

The desert landscape

The desert landscape

The desert landscape

The desert landscape

The desert landscape

The desert landscape

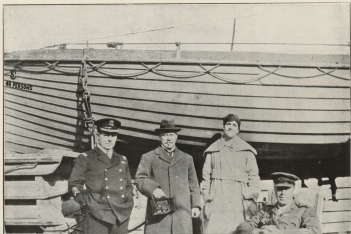

The desert landscape

The desert landscape

The desert landscape

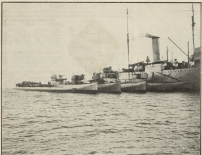

THE ALBATROSS, LEAVING PORT IN THE EVENING

At 10:30 A.M. Albatross, flagship of the Australian fleet, which had received word in the Pacific and with the vessel fleet in the Pacific. At 10:30 A.M. Albatross, flagship of the Australian fleet, which had received word in the Pacific and with the vessel fleet in the Pacific. At 10:30 A.M. Albatross, flagship of the Australian fleet, which had received word in the Pacific and with the vessel fleet in the Pacific.

LAST WE FORGET

(1) An Anzac Day commemorative in Sydney, Australia. (2) The Anzac Day commemorative in Sydney, Australia. (3) The Anzac Day commemorative in Sydney, Australia. (4) The Anzac Day commemorative in Sydney, Australia. (5) The Anzac Day commemorative in Sydney, Australia.

THE LATEST JOHNSON TO THE NAVY

U.S.N. Johnson in Sydney, Australia, at the same time as the ship, viewed in the Sydney Harbour. The ship, viewed in the Sydney Harbour. The ship, viewed in the Sydney Harbour. The ship, viewed in the Sydney Harbour.

A VIEW OF AUSTRALIAN COAST.

The Anzac Day commemorative in Sydney, Australia. The Anzac Day commemorative in Sydney, Australia. The Anzac Day commemorative in Sydney, Australia. The Anzac Day commemorative in Sydney, Australia. The Anzac Day commemorative in Sydney, Australia.